Faculty Positions for Fall 2016
School of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences

Habib University is a global institution of higher education located in Karachi, Pakistan. It is an undergraduate liberal arts and sciences institution that welcomed its first class of students in Fall 2014. Its liberal arts and sciences framework offers its students the breadth and depth of knowledge in the humanities, social sciences and the natural sciences through a rigorous Core Curriculum; coupled with intensive knowledge in the disciplines, a host of technical skills and vital soft skills; qualities that are highly expected of graduates trained for the global work place.

The School of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences at Habib University intends to set new international standards for interdisciplinary liberal arts education. The School has open faculty positions for its session starting in Fall 2016.

1. Social Development and Policy Program: The first program of its kind in Pakistan, the program combines a rigorous classroom training in the social sciences and humanities with reflective field-based practice. Through a transdisciplinary curriculum that is rooted in the South Asian context and defined by a spirit of global universality, students gain valuable theoretical and practical expertise in development studies in collaborative, learning environments.
   a. Positions are open in the following areas: Public Policy/Development Practice, Political Science, Sociology, Legal Studies, South Asian Studies, and related disciplines. The Social Development and Policy program is looking for candidates with strong teaching and research credentials who will add to the thematic and methodological strengths of the program, and who can contribute to the teaching of our flagship University Liberal Core.

2. Communication Studies and Design Program: The program embodies a rich mix of theory and practice to produce imaginative leaders and practitioners in the field of communication. It combines a transdisciplinary approach to learning with specialized training in all areas: media and communication studies, graphic design, and film-making.
   a. Positions are open in the following areas: Communication Studies, Visual/Communication Design, Film Studies and New Media, Journalism and Media Studies, Ethics and Public Culture, Comparative Literature, Rhetoric, and English.
