

ISAS Public Lecture Series

Ask a Diplomat!

U.S. State Department Info Session with Diplomat in Residence Dorothy Ngutter

a talk by

Dorothy Ngutter

Diplomat in Residence – Northwest Region

Dorothy Ngutter is a career diplomat, and currently serves as the Diplomat in Residence for the Northwest Region (Alaska, northern California, Oregon, Washington). One of 16 Diplomats in Residence across the country, Dorothy provides guidance and advice on careers, internships, and fellowships with the State Department to students and professionals throughout the northwest region. With fourteen years of international and domestic experience in the U.S. Diplomatic Service, Dorothy most recently represented the U.S. Department of State as a National Security Affairs Fellow at the Hoover Institution, Stanford University. Prior to the fellowship, Dorothy was the Deputy Political Counselor at the U.S. Embassy in Ankara, Turkey (2012-2015), where she worked on a range of foreign policy issues. Before heading to Turkey, she served as a special assistant to Amb. William J. Burns in the Office of the Under Secretary for Political Affairs, covering Africa and global issues (2010-2011). Dorothy's overseas assignments include working as a Public Diplomacy Officer at the U.S. Mission to NATO in Brussels, Belgium and a Consular and Political Officer at the U.S. Embassy in Bamako, Mali. In Washington, she also served as the Peru Desk Officer in the Bureau of Western Hemisphere Affairs, and as a Watch Officer in the State Department's 24/7 crisis management center. Dorothy earned a dual Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and Communication Studies from Northeastern University in Boston, and holds a Master of Art in Law & Diplomacy (MALD) from The Fletcher School at Tufts University. She joined the Foreign Service, after completing the Thomas R. Pickering Graduate Foreign Affairs Fellowship.

Thursday, September 06, 2018

12 - 1 pm

10 Stephens Hall, (For directions look up "Institute for South Asia Studies" on Google Maps)

Event is free & open to public.
Information at 510-642-3608 or southasia.berkeley.edu