William E. B. Sherman
Assistant Professor, Department of Religion Studies,
University of North Carolina at Charlotte

S.S. Pirzada
Elder statesman of Pakistan, leading historian of the Pakistan movement, & one of Pakistan’s leading constitutional experts

Dr. Sherman’s research approaches the history and literature of Muslim societies with a particular focus upon premodern South and Central Asia. His research engages the imagination of language and revelation in premodern Islamic culture. In addition to his interests in the linguistic imagination of Islamic literatures, he also researches and teaches on issues of apocalypticism, hagiography, theory and method in the study of religion, missionary movements in South Asia, and Islam in America.
