THE S.S. PIRZADA DISSERTATION PRIZE IN PAKISTAN
— Award Ceremony —

ECOLOGIES OF WATER GOVERNANCE IN PAKISTAN
THE COLONY, THE CORPORATION & THE CONTEMPORARY

Thursday, April 2, 2020
4-6 pm
10 Stephens Hall

EVENT COSPONSORED BY THE BERKELEY PAKISTAN INITIATIVE

This talk is free and open to public.
Further information at southasia.berkeley.edu

S.S. Pirzada
Elder statesman of Pakistan, leading historian of the Pakistan movement, & one of Pakistan’s leading constitutional experts

Maira Hayat
Postdoctoral Fellow, Department of Anthropology and the Woods Institute for the Environment, Stanford University

Dr. Maira Hayat's research develops a conversation among the anthropology of bureaucracy, law, ethics and Islam; political ecology; science and technology studies and postcolonial critique. She is currently working on her book manuscript based on her dissertation. Another ongoing project, a study of postcolonial sovereignty as it is interrupted by imperial projects, traces the waxing & waning of the promise of the postcolonial in Pakistan through an examination of forms of government and jurisdiction in Pakistan’s northwest.

The Syed Sharifuddin Pirzada Endowment on Pakistan, established by Rafat Pirzada and his wife, Amna Jaffer, and named after Rafat Pirzada’s father, Syed Sharifuddin Pirzada, supports i) the Syed Sharifuddin Pirzada Dissertation Prize on Pakistan (an annual dissertation prize for the best work in the humanities, social sciences, law, or public health on Pakistan, the region that is Pakistan, or things to do with Pakistan), and ii) the Syed Sharifuddin Pirzada Lecture on Pakistan (an annual lecture that spotlights the winner of the S.S. Pirzada Dissertation Prize). Rafat Pirzada is a Silicon Valley based entrepreneur and venture capitalist.

Dr. Maira Hayat's research develops a conversation among the anthropology of bureaucracy, law, ethics and Islam; political ecology; science and technology studies and postcolonial critique. She is currently working on her book manuscript based on her dissertation. Another ongoing project, a study of postcolonial sovereignty as it is interrupted by imperial projects, traces the waxing & waning of the promise of the postcolonial in Pakistan through an examination of forms of government and jurisdiction in Pakistan’s northwest.