The SUBIR & MALINI CHOWDHURY CENTER FOR BANGLADESH STUDIES
at UC Berkeley with support from the Institute for South Asia Studies, the Center of American Overseas Research Centers, and the American Institute of Bangladesh Studies present

AGENDA
9:30: OPENING
SANCHITA SAXENA, Institute for South Asia Studies, UC Berkeley
RICK SPEES, CAORC

9:30-11: PANEL I
STATELESSNESS & THE POLITICS OF THE NATION
NAVINE MURSHID, Political Science, Colgate University
STEVE ROSS, Richardson Center for Global Engagement
ALI RIAZ, Political Science, Illinois State University
PATRICK DESUTTER, Anthropology, UC Berkeley
(Moderator)
DINA SIDDIQI, Liberal Studies, NYU

11:15-12:45: PANEL II
VIOLENCE AND IDENTITY
SHIREEN HUQ, Narippokho
RAHIMA BEGUM, Restless Beings
PRASHANTA TRIPURA, Aparajita
YASMIN ULLAH, Rohingya Human Rights Network
(Moderator)
KHATHARYA UM, Ethnic Studies, UC Berkeley

1:30-3: PANEL III
PHYSICAL AND MENTAL HEALTH IN THE ROHINGYA CAMPS
ROHINI HAAR, Epidemiology, UC Berkeley
RUHUL ABID, Brown University Medical School
CHRISTOPHER LEBOA, Epidemiology, Stanford University
(Moderator)
LAWRENCE COHEN, Medical Anthropology, UC Berkeley

3:15-4:45: PANEL IV
DEVELOPMENT INTERVENTIONS
ASHLEY TOOMBS, BRAC USA
SHARIF MUKUL, Tropical Forests & People Research Centre, University of the Sunshine Coast
MABRUR AHMED, Restless Beings
(Moderator)
SHA RAY, Energy and Resources Group, UC Berkeley

5-6: KEYNOTE
HANNAH BEECH, Southeast Asia Bureau Chief, The New York Times

BEYOND THE CRISIS NARRATIVE
Rohingya Statelessness & its Implications for Bangladesh

FRI
FEB 7
2020
9 TO 6:30
10 STEPHENS HALL

More info at chowdhurycenter.berkeley.edu