

AARTI NAIK

DEEPA PAWAR

NAWEEN MANGI

DEVELOPMENT THROUGH ACTION

A Panel Discussion with 3 Social Activists from South Asia

Aarti Naik, Deepa Pawar, and Naweena Mangi are three social workers who for the past several years have focused on gender and poverty issues in India and Pakistan.

Please join us for a panel discussion and hear about their development work and the social impact that their work has helped bring about.

They also the top three finalists in Tell Her Story, a contest designed to showcase remarkable women in and from South Asia who fight against social injustice. They will be in residence in UC Berkeley during the week of September 11 and on Sunday, September 16 will be participating in the Tell Her Story Gala where the contest winner will be selected.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 2018
12-2 p.m. | 10 Stephens Hall

(For directions look up "Institute for South Asia Studies" on Google Maps)

Cosponsors: Facebook, Zareen's, Folio3, Project on Political Conflict, Gender and People's Rights at the Center for Race and Gender.

Event is free & open to public. 510-642-3608 or southasia.berkeley.edu